

London, 25th September 2009

BALLROOM DANCE STORMING THROUGH ASIA Launch of the new WDC Asian Amateur League

The World Dance Council is made up of 59 Member Countries and recognized throughout the world as the leading international organisation representing Dance Schools, Dance Clubs, Medalist Dancers, Amateur Competition couples, Pro-Am Competitors and Professional Dancers.

The World Dance Council (WDC) Professional Top Couples are undoubtedly the best dancers in the world.

The WDC Championships and Dance Festivals are renowned internationally and judged by WDC Professional adjudicators only, many of whom were Top Professional Dancers in their own right. In Asia particularly, the amount of Amateur Dancers has been increasing tremendously over recent years, and the local and international competitions organised under the umbrella of the WDC Amateur League (WDC-AL) is escalating.

Due to the popularity of dancing within Asia, the Asian organisers of the WDC-AL competitions are excited to announce the launch of:

“THE WDC ASIAN AMATEUR LEAGUE”

This new league as part of the WDC-AL is developing a new prestigious Amateur Competition Series Open to the World:

WDC-AL ASIAN AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

From 2010 six countries will join this new series they are: Indonesia, China, Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong, and Thailand

The President of the World Dance Council, Mr. Donnie Burns MBE is proud to see the movement of dance spreading into Asia and growing so rapidly in popularity.

For all your queries and to join:

WDC AL Asia Contact:

Mr. Marcel DeRijk

Vice-President WDC

Email: asia@wdcamateurleague.com